“As a former CPA, turned salonspa owner turned Profit Advisor to top brands for 30+ years, I've seen it all. Many of the challenges facing the industry today are a direct result of lack of financial education and confidence. Together, we can change that by providing students financial education that honors their passion and creativity. Let's empower the next generation of beauty and wellness professionals with money skills to match their art and heart.”

TOM KUHN, FOUNDER/CEO QNITY INC.
